FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUNDOWN REBRANDS COMPANY TO LINC LIGHTING & ELECTRICAL

Name Change to Reflect Corporate Unity, Business Evolution, and Enhanced Customer Value

Lake Forest, CA — June 30, 2008 — Sundown Lighting & Electrical, an award-winning professional electrical service and lighting maintenance company based in Lake Forest, CA, announced today it will change its name and brand to Linc[®] Lighting & Electrical. The change will not only unify Sundown and its subsidiary Key Electric, but will also allow the company to better leverage Linc's international brand recognition and innovative reputation. Sundown was acquired by Irvine-based The Linc Group in early 2007.

“The Linc name better reflects the next evolution of our business and scope of service,” said Linc Lighting & Electrical President Darin Anderson. “We have migrated to The Linc Group's award-winning systems, tools and processes and now are able to offer more resource saving products and services, with a growing emphasis on Energy Management and Controls. While people are the key to any great company, Linc's leading technology tools, quality standards, and best practice processes empower our team members to deliver and ensure the highest level of service. ”

The legal name and Tax ID numbers will remain the same as before the change.
